

hello

Welcome to The Royal Green Jackets (Rifles) Museum

This is the museum entrance...

Entrance

This is where your adults buy their ticket, as children 16 and under are FREE; you can also buy items from the shop with your pocket money here...

People with green name tags will be able to help you...

The museum covers two floors...

There are some pretend people in the museum...

This is our Private 60th (Royal American) Soldier wearing a uniform from 1758.

Here we have Rifleman Harris

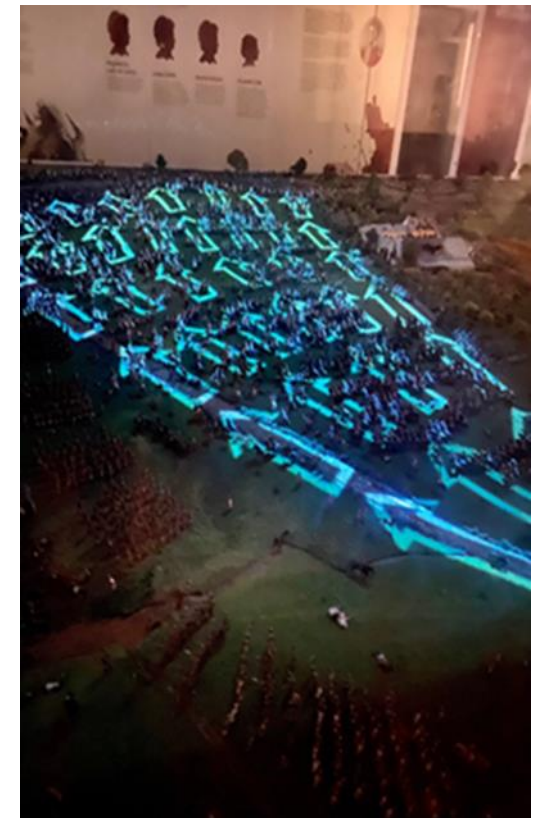

Upstairs we have our very famous Waterloo Diorama, it is on a loop, every 8 minutes the room goes dark and a narration comes on. The model has a projection on it, showing you the important events and places.

The Waterloo Diorama

You can see how long till the lights go out on the timer, which can be found on the left hand side, just in the entrance of the room.

Here is the room dark and a projection on the model

There are items to touch....

Handle a musket and baker rifle

There are some things to look at and listen too...

Videos

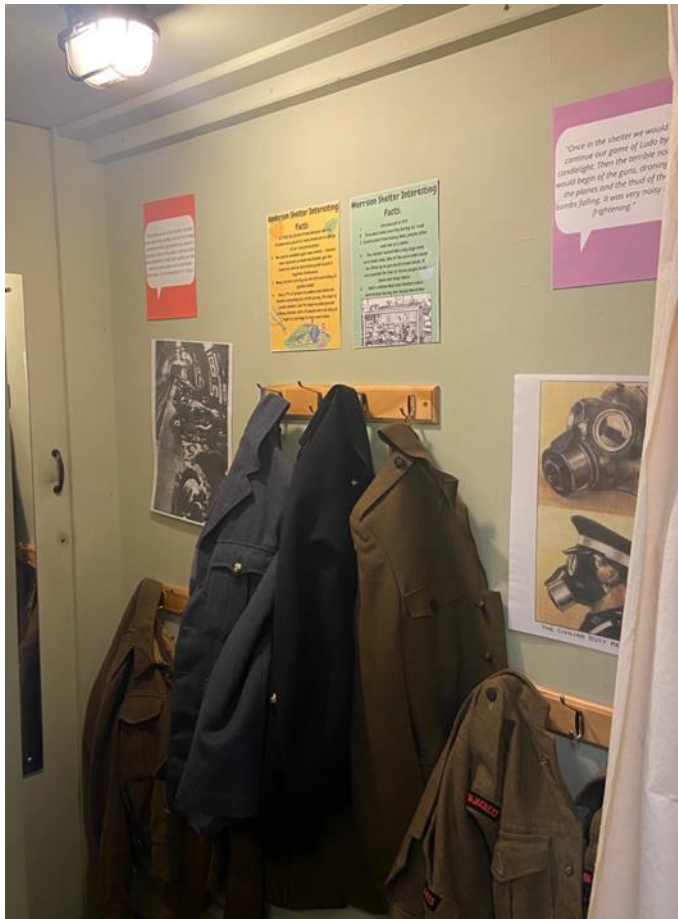

Audio

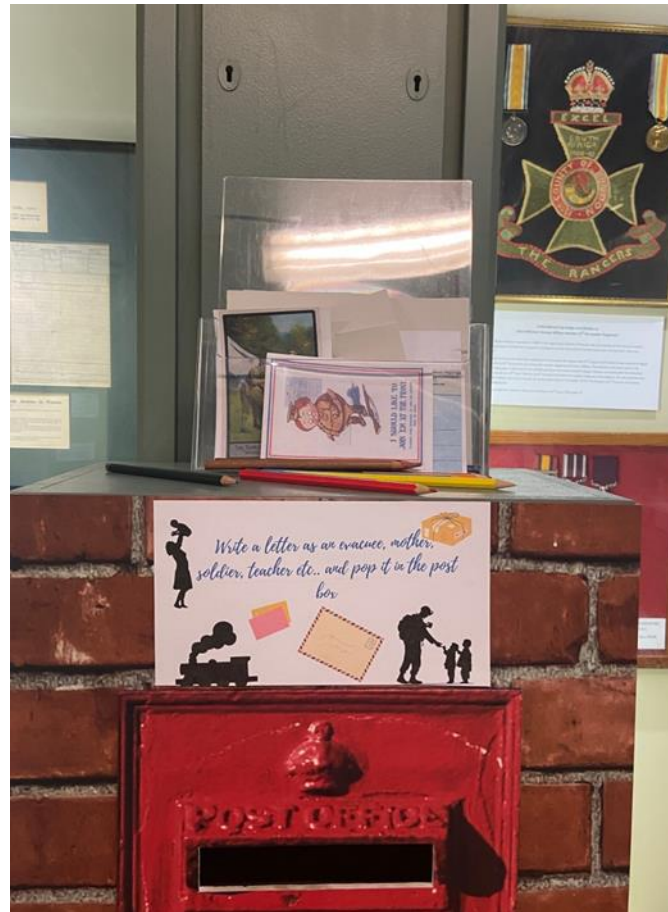

Models

You can dress up, write a letter and play with toy soldiers...

Dressing up cupboard
(downstairs)

Write a letter and post it in our post box

Toy soldiers to play with

If you need some quiet time there is a place to sit and colour

The Kincaid Gallery (top floor)

Thank you and see you soon!

